- Areas of strength/experience/achievements in the field of intellectual or other developmental disabilities.
- List nominee's volunteer experience

Joleane joined TLC Operations while TCM services were being established. Since joining the program, she has been integral into the development of the team and the program. Joleane has a strong sense of self that allows her to seamlessly work with the families and the members assigned to TLC. Joleane is able to speak to everyone and really understand their individual levels and presentations. She is easy-going and intensely knowledgeable of Autism and IDD populations. Joleane has well over 15 years' experience in the field of IDD services and the community. Joleane has engaged with members that more often will not engage with "strangers or new care workers". Joleane's strength is within her compassion and determination to see others succeed on their time and on their individual levels. She enjoys seeing our community thrive, even in the smallest of ways.
